

The Telegraph

CALCUTTA MONDAY 3 MARCH 2025 ₹ 6.00

10 GOODLIFE

WHAT SUP

t2

THE TELEGRAPH MONDAY 3 MARCH 2025 XXCE

MOMENTS FROM THE CARRING MINDS CUP HELD AT RCTC

The Carring Minds Cup, held at the Royal Calcutta Turf Club on February 8, saw a familiar scene with excitement in the air as spectators thronged the gallery with binoculars to their eyes, cheering the horses on as they raced past. From elegantly dressed ladies in stylish hats and vibrant outfits to racing enthusiasts reveling in the glory of the race and venue, the Reserve Stand at the turf club was buzzing with energy and excitement.

From floral and flowing outfits to vibrant fascinators, from bold pink and neon yellow to sleek monochrome tones, vibrant colours dominated the outfits.

"It was a real pleasure to host The Carring Minds Cup at RCTC, where races are a much-awaited annual must with the best of February weather, gentlemen and ladies in their best attire, amidst the lush green and iconic, scenic view of our beautiful city," said Minu Budhia, founder-director of Carring Minds International and ICanFly International and ICanfly Teakafi.

Sanjay Budhia presented the Carring Minds Cup to trainer Arti Doctor, along with owners Vishal Doctor, Hemang Doctor and Dev Kumar Doctor, of the winning horse Sky Force, and jockey Suraj Narredu.

"We are really very happy to be associated with Carring Minds Cup. Minu Budhia is doing great humanitarian work. Associating with them is a matter of pleasure and pride," said Lt. Col. Rohit Thool, CEO and secretary of RCTC.

Pictures courtesy: Carring Minds

Sanjay Budhia presented the Carring Minds Cup to trainer Arti Doctor along with owners Vishal Doctor, Hemang Doctor and Dev Kumar Doctor, of the winning horse Sky Force, and jockey Suraj Narredu

The thrilling winning moment of the Carring Minds Cup horse race

➤ Lt Col Rohit Thool, CEO and secretary of RCTC